Honest songs. Road-tested craft.

Joshua T. Hester is a Wisconsin-based Americana and folk singer-songwriter whose music is rooted in storytelling, lived experience, and American roots music.

For more than a decade, Hester toured the Midwest as a member of Listening Party, playing hundreds of shows in listening rooms, clubs, theaters, fairs, and festivals. A multi-instrumentalist on guitar, bass, and mandolin, he now performs under his own name, blending folk, country, Americana, and roots influences into character-driven songs with a distinctly Midwestern perspective.
